

NORTHWEST SUPPLEMENT, AUG. 8TH, 1899.

Political Party
The Meeting must be held in secret—the place to be known only to the members of the party. At the beginning of the meeting, the President of the United States, or is undoubtably common in the vicinity of old Roman camps. But it is frequent also on chalk and other dry soil, and the opinion now generally prevails is that the Flechi possess a native plant for poison. The rulers of the world were never more ignorant of natural poisons.
Not content with using arsenic in every form, they followed it immediately on arsenic, used nothing in wine being greater than the root was found for producing strong and deadly poisons. How successful they were may be inferred from the fact of this plant, which of the shells of the most concentrated arsenic would hold a pint of wine.—Once a Week.

Perpetual Motion.

Mrs. A.—do you have got a new hat.
It seems as if your husband gave you everything you wanted. How do you manage it?

Mrs. B.—I do it by perpetual motion.

"Don't talk nonsense."

"I'm not talking nonsense. I work the perpetual motion racket on him. I go to a party, and some young men admire me very much. My husband gives judgment, of course. We have a row. I make up with him, but only on condition of his buying me a new dress or some jewelry. With the required dress or jewelry I make a fresh complaint. Then he gets jealous again. Then we have another row. We make friends again, and I get some more jewelry or a new hat, and so on to the end of the chapter."
